Attestation of Kosher Authorization - אישור כשרות

A. Loacker AG/SpA

Facilities located at:

- Auna di Sotto, Italy
- Heinfels, Austria

Having carried out an accurate inspection of the production premises of the company Loacker SpA in Auna di Sotto in the Province of Bolzano - Italy, and in Heinfels in Austria, and examined the documentation relating to the origin of raw materials, of the production lines and processes, I hereby certify that the products packed by the said plants do not contravene the principles of Kosher foodstuffs.

We have obtained Kosher certification from all suppliers of prime materials. Throughout the factory no raw materials are present which are not certified according to Kosher norms.

The products are renowned for their quality, and the production is based on the same principle; the factory is clean and gives an excellent impression.

Production:

Wafers with milk creme.

Nut & Chocolate Spread.

All productions in both plant are to be considered Afiat Israel.

Furthermore I certify that Loacker products are to be classified restricted as following:

The products are not Kosher for Pesach

The dairy products used are not supervised from the milking.

This document is referred only to products manufactured in the plant of Auna di Sotto, Italy and Heinfels, Austria.

The validity of this document is extended until April 30, 2012 and is subject to obligational terms.

This document is subject to renewal.
